

Canadian Paediatric Society

Position Statement

Practice Point

Characteristics

Will drive the Canadian Paediatric Society's activities, and/or represent the organization's position on a particular issue

Will help the CPS accomplish its Objectives

Expresses a definite course/method of action in light of given conditions to guide and determine present/future directions

SHOULD contain recommendations

Characteristics

Drives the paediatrician/family physician/child and youth health professional in the clinical setting

Can be a stand-alone document

SHOULD NOT contain recommendations

Authorship

Authoring entity is a CPS committee

Lead author must be a committee member or section executive member

Non-committee members must have Executive approval to co-author a statement

Authorship

Authoring entity is a CPS committee or section

Lead author must be a committee member or section executive member

Format

Submitted within 2 years of intent approval

Maximum 3000 words

Format

Submitted within 2 years of intent approval

Maximum 1500 words

Evidence Base

Describes the level of evidence-based data and review on which the policy is based

Uses formal rules of evidence in development

Evidence Base

Uses formal rules of evidence in development

Reviewers

Board of Directors

Reviewers

Board of Directors

Publication

Published in Paediatrics & Child Health and on www.cps.ca, in English and French

Publication

Published in Paediatrics & Child Health and on www.cps.ca, in English and French