Clinical

- One to two half day clinics/week at SMH Pediatric Ambulatory Clinic with a focus on children/youth Immigrant/Refugee health
- Two to three days of clinics/week of outreach (i.e. Family Health Team locations, Parents for Better Beginnings/Regent Park Community Health Center, School Clinics etc.) as developed
- Minimum two and up to four on call days/month and equitable share of holidays/24hr shifts as per group arrangement
- Other areas of special interest/expertise can be explored and supported/promoted depending on individual and departmental needs

Academic/Educational

- Undergraduate Medical Education - supervision of Fitzgerald Academy clinical clerks and elective students
- Postgraduate Medical Education - supervision of St. Michael's Hospital Family Medicine Residents, Pediatric Residents, Pediatric Fellows and elective/selective residents
- Involvement in the Integrated Clinical Experience, Case Based Learning and clerkship teaching at the University of Toronto
- Multidisciplinary Education - RNs, students etc. ad-hoc
- Supervision of Clinical Nurse Specialist/Nurse Practitioners
- Other teaching/educational opportunities/CME as arises and/or needed for departmental function
- Continuing Medical Education (CME), intradepartmental and other nursing and parent/other interest groups as necessary

Research

- Development and implementation of relevant community based research projects (i.e. School Health Initiative, possibly CPS surveillance or various other projects currently in progress within department or in area of interest to be determined) and preferably with multidisciplinary involvement
- Research involvement to be supervised/mentored by Director of Research
- One half day of protected research time per week
- Departmental support/funding for actual projects to be requested and/or negotiated on a project by project basis

Administration

- Attendance at 80% of FTE, Ambulatory Clinic and Pediatric Staff Meetings
- Involvement in departmental committees (i.e. Policy and Procedures, Alternate Funding Plan, Quality Assurance, Education/Research, etc.)
- Involvement in hospital committees as deemed appropriate (i.e. Pharmacy and Therapeutic, Obstetrics/Inner City Health etc.) by hospital administration and/or Chief of Pediatrics
- Representation of SMH Department of Pediatrics at University of Toronto, Hospital for Sick Children, LHIN/MOH or other committee membership as deemed appropriate by Chief of Pediatrics

Contact Information

Dr. Michael Sgro, Chief of Pediatrics & Director of Research, Department of Pediatrics
30 Bond Street, Toronto, ON M5B 1W8, 416 864 6060 x 6560; sgrom@smh.ca