

Caring for Kids New to Canada

Caring for Kids New to Canada (www.kidsnewtocanada.ca) is a website for people who care for immigrant and refugee children, youth and families. Launched in 2013, the site has a wealth of information for health professionals, educators, social workers, and others.

We are launching a blog (www.kidsnewtocanada.ca/blog), and are looking for contributions. Share your reflections and opinions as either a newcomer to Canada, or a person who works with newcomer children and youth. It's an excellent opportunity to express your voice and be part of a national discussion about immigrant and refugee health.

Contributions of all kinds are welcome, especially those focused on these themes:

- Success stories
- Models of care
- Access to care (barriers & facilitators)
- Advocacy projects
- Reflections from the field

Submission guidelines:

- Any style of writing will be considered – first person, narrative, poetry etc.
- Posts should be aimed at the site's audience—professionals who care for immigrant and refugee children and youth.
- No formal references required, but please include where works have been cited.
- Suggested length up to 500 words; maximum 800 words.
- Include names, profession/title, and location of all authors.
- Send submissions as Word files. Photos are encouraged, as long as the author has permission to use them.

All submissions will be reviewed by Caring for Kids New to Canada task force, and may be edited for length or clarity. Authors will be advised when submissions are posted.

Send questions and submissions to kidsnewtocanada@cps.ca. We look forward to your contributions!
